

AD Conclude
domain is comprised of an acidic portion linked to an alpha-helix, said acidic portion having at least 10 amino acids and a pI below 5, said one or more domains being isolated from all other regions of a native hypersensitive response elicitor protein from which the domains originated.
